

What are the goals of the ACBN?

Written by The Editor

Tuesday, 28 April 2009 09:41 - Last Updated Monday, 21 September 2009 11:38

---

To become the pre-eminent business membership support network for African and Caribbean Businesses

the inner and outer London Regions.

To become a Regional Agent for Change, the focus and channel for the funneling of effective business growth strategies and economic wealth creation for its community.

To achieve recognition as an exemplar of best practice in its field and to become the partner of first choice for industry, government and regional business support agencies for African and Caribbean business development in London.

- To become a sustainable organization, delivering high quality business solutions to its members, partners and stakeholders.
- To franchise its service format to other partners of the UK Europe where demand for the service gaps exist. To connect to partners in Africa, the Caribbean and the USA to exchange organizational learning and to facilitate international trade opportunities.

Download the ACBN Toolbar