Government funding to train your team and improve your own skills is available now through the specialists at London Brokerage Limited. Working in partnership with Business Link, London Brokerage Limited offers a fully-funded consultancy service, helping organisations of all sizes throughout London improve staff skills, boost their productivity, plus maintain and grow their profitability, through:

- * Free skills analysis and training brokerage – a comprehensive, independent and impartial analysis to identify any skills gaps in your business, then to match your training needs with potential training providers;

- * Free service to source available funding – identifying possible Train to Gain, Apprenticeships, ESF, LSC or other funding to pay for all or part of the training needed by you and your team, plus help to source that funding;

- * Free referrals service – putting you in touch with government-funded organisations and other suppliers that might be able to support any of your business needs.

The service provided by London Brokerage Limited is not only independent and impartial, but has also been designed to be flexible to suit the needs of the businesses that use it. That means you can access the organisation's dedicated Skills Advisers at a time and place to suit you.

Employees can access a very wide range of training opportunities, from basic literacy and numeracy development, through generic and industry-specific qualifications, to tailor-made courses. And not only are businesses of all sizes and types potentially eligible for funded training, but those with fewer than 50 employees may also benefit from a contribution to wages
